Larkin Community Hospital Acquires Palm Springs General Hospital

Larkin Community Hospital has acquired Palm Springs General Hospital, a 247-bed acute care hospital in Hialeah, for $40 million in a deal financed by Ocean Bank. The 15-acre campus includes a 43,000-square-foot medical office building.

This is the latest in a long string of acquisitions by the South Miami-based, physician-owned hospital, whose holdings now include the 147 bed teaching hospital in South Miami, a 50 bed inpatient behavioral health hospital and 152-bed skilled nursing facility in Hollywood, a 180-bed assisted living facility in South West Miami, 2 home health agencies in Miami-Dade and Broward counties, and 5 imaging centers throughout Miami-Dade County.

South Florida Hospital News and Healthcare Report's number one goal is top quality healthcare journalism written and edited for the region's most successful, powerful healthcare business executives and professionals.
