Marcum Governmental Symposium

Government finance officials from across South Florida are gearing up for the 18th Annual Marcum Governmental Symposium to be held on November 1. Presented by the Governmental Services Practice group of Marcum LLP, a national accounting and advisory firm, the symposium will include a full day of technical education and training to bring government finance professionals up to date on new accounting and reporting requirements. This year's event will take place at the Signature Grand in Davie. More information about the Florida governmental symposium, including registration, is available at <http://www.marcumllp.com/GovSymp2012>.
