Neurosurgeon Zeguang Ren, MD, PhD, Joins Cleveland Clinic Martin Health

January 7, 2020 – Cleveland Clinic Martin Health welcomes board-certified vascular and endovascular neurosurgeon Zeguang Ren, MD, PhD.

Dr. Ren is now accepting new patients. His office is located at Tradition HealthPark One at 10050 SW Innovation Way in Port St. Lucie, on the campus of Cleveland Clinic Tradition Hospital. Patients may request an appointment by calling 772.288.5862 or online at martinhealth.org/neurosurgery.

Dr. Ren specializes in cerebral and spinal vascular disease and can utilize open techniques or advanced minimally invasive endovascular procedures to treat different conditions, such as brain aneurysms, arteriovenous malformation, and carotid artery disease, acute stroke, trigeminal neuralgia, facial spasm, chronic subdural hematoma, among others.

Dr. Ren received training in both neurosurgery and endovascular neurosurgery. He completed a neurosurgery fellowship at the University of Washington, and a cerebrovascular/endovascular neurosurgery fellowship from Strong Memorial Hospital, University of Rochester. He earned a Master of Neuroscience degree and PhD of Neuroscience at Beijing Neurosurgical Institute and Beijing Tiantan Hospital.

Prior to joining Martin Health, Dr. Ren has practiced as an attending neurosurgeon in Tampa, Fort Pierce and in Beijing. He is board certified by the American Board of Neurological Surgery.
